

Description: Hilly walk around famous Sussex landmark with striking views in every direction and wide variety of chalkland wildflowers.

Take middle path for 2 mile route.

NB: Long Man is fenced off to protect it, footpaths go around edge of steepest areas.

Take care: Significantly steep in places; chalky paths uneven in places; some stiles; could be muddy in places; grazing sheep/ponies at times. Footpath from car park parallel to road - quite overgrown June 2021.

Difficulty level: Slightly challenging.
